Plastic Surgery Tales Robert N. Cooper

This book is a compilation of amusing, evocative and surprising stories collected from plastic surgeons around the world. These personal recollections resound with emotion from a different point of view - that of the plastic surgeon's. Each story gives us precious insight into the doctor patient relationship. From Bombay to Boston, the stories show us a side of surgery never seen before. Yet the most memorable tales are not of Hollywood luminaries but of third world children. All profits from this book will be donated to the Plastic Surgeon's Education Foundation.
