We have all heard the expression, “Birds of a feather, flock together.” Meaning that people, as well as birds, who are a lot alike tend to gather together and become friends. But what happens when people, or birds, from very different cultures, suddenly find themselves placed together? Follow the story of young Obinna, a twelve-year-old boy and his pet bird from a remote country in Africa, as they ‘accidentally’ find themselves at a refugee camp and then on an airplane to America. Both are in for an adventure of a lifetime!
