The Aeon Star Lauren T. Hart

Nineteen year old Jenny Taylor has never wanted more than the simple, normal life she was given. Helping her parents care for her seven younger siblings, working for her dad at his church, going to college someday - hopefully in the fall. And one day, settling down with the boy next door to start a family of her own...

There's just one problem. Jen was never meant to have an ordinary life. She can ignore the nightmares, her parent's overprotective natures, and even the sense that she doesn't really belong. But try as she might, she can't escape her destiny and when the dangers and secrets of a past she can't remember come hunting for her, her simple life doesn't just crumble it shatters. Nick Grace is a researcher looking for a way to destroy an ancient evil - one that sounds hauntingly similar to Jen's nightmares. Nick says he wants to help her find answers, but can she trust him? The inescapable pull she feels toward him whenever he's near, only makes her more unsure. As the danger looms ever closer, Jen will have to make a stand against her enemies as well as her friends in this compelling urban-sci-fi page turner, with just the right amount of romance, that will keep you guessing up to the very last plot twist.
