"Living Proof 2 - Omak" picks right up where "Living Proof" leaves off. Kyle Morrison is supposed to be on a mini-vacation in Seattle with good friends. Instead he is a wanted man and has made a horrific discovery in a Seattle hotel room. The action escalates in "Living Proof 2" when this discovery thrusts Kyle into a burning rage and he wants ultimate payback. He's convinced that the drug dealing, ex-con father of his new love Sami is responsible, and no one can tell him different.

Sami is certain Kyle has no idea what he is up against and offers to help him rather than watch him get killed. The two of them elude a swarm of Seattle police on their way to the small town of Omak, Washington, where her dad lives and where they expect to get answers.

The road to Omak will not be an easy one. There are no road signs or traffic lights for the twists and the unexpected, and there are no dashboard warnings for the sharp turns and double-crosses. "Living Proof 2 - Omak" will keep you holding on tight for a full speed adventure toward revenge, old west justice and a young couple falling hard for each other.

Welcome back to the "Living Proof" series...the road trip that you would never want to experience and the story you will long remember.
