When the Internet collapses, society responds almost immediately...by having a meltdown.

While civilization is steadily destroying itself, IT cubicle-jockey and cyberspace junkie Brent Porter enlists the help of his grumpy office building security guard, Mickey, to find his missing computer gamer girlfriend, Molly. The trouble is, Molly's fallen down her laundry basket and into a lewd and confusing world of nonsense, in a retelling of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland with a twist: the heroine is dumped into the deepest, darkest bowels of the Internet.

So while Brent and Mickey are searching for Molly in a city that's gone to complete chaos, and Molly's fighting off porn freaks, viruses, and scammers, who's going to save humanity from the Internet (and itself)? Well, that would be the Downriver Boys, a group of homeless people who've never had to rely on technology to survive. These vigilant vagabonds, led by a war veteran and a half-brilliant, half-insane madwoman, will have to rely on everything they know about survival so that Brent, Mickey, and Molly will even have something to come back to.

From the authors of the popular web-comic A Beer for the Shower (dot) com.
