Ready Player One* by Ernest Cline | Digest & Review

Ready Player One takes readers on a quest through a virtual world that is filled with pop culture references from the 1970s and '80s. Wade, or "Parzival" as he is known online, a sweet yet self-deprecating guy, is the unlikely hero of this story. Ernest Cline successfully combines a quest novel, love story, and virtual space opera into one exciting adventure. The reader will be taken into a universe filled with spell-slinging and giant Japanese robots, and along the way, Wade is faced with a decision of virtual world versus the real world. Should he forsake his perfect virtual world for the real life he so desperately wanted to escape?

Since its release in 2011, Ernest Cline's debut novel has become a New York Times Bestseller and has been picked up by Warner Bros. to be made into a movie.
