How far will Candice go to tempt the man of the house into paying for her dream vacation?

Years ago, Candice and her family were supposed to go to Paris. When her father got into an accident, and the stress drove her parents to divorce, the plans fell apart. Over the years, the mystique of the place has filled her dreams with visions of the City of Light.

Years later, her friends are planning a trip to that city of love- and she's invited. Candy is crushed when she realizes her mother can't afford it, and her mother's wealthy "friend" is going to be stingy: their relationship has never been strong, and certainly not thousands of dollars strong.

When he gives her the option to pay for her ticket with her body, though, will her morals win out- or her dreams?
