CPT/HCPCS Coding and Reimbursement for Physician Services, 2002 Lynn Kuehn, LaVonne Wieland
Designed to work equally well for classroom education and on-the-job training, CPT/HCPCS Coding and Reimbursement for Physician Services gives users the knowledge and experience they need to code with confidence in physicians' practices and other freestanding ambulatory care facilities. It's also a handy reference for your coding library.

CPT/HCPCS educators, students, and coders will find a practical tool that grounds users in reimbursement theory and provides plenty of real-life examples. Also includes numerous practice exercises based on actual case documentation. The text also gives users considerable hands-on practice in analyzing and coding clinical data, so they learn the importance of accurate and complete documentation as the cornerstone of effective CPT/HCPCS coding. This book features code updates effective January 1, 2002.

An instructor's guide with an answer key for all exercises is available in online format through AOE's Community of Practice. Instructors not affiliated with accredited HIM programs can obtain an answer key by e-mailing the publisher directly at publications@ahima.org.
