Martyrdom Conspiracy: Silencing an American Prophet - Legacy of Disgrace Keith Terry, Henry Holmes

Was the martyrdom of the Prophet Joseph Smith Jr. simply the result of spontaneous anarchy or was it a carefully orchestrated assassination?

Bestselling author Keith Terry and co-author Henry Holmes shed dramatic new light on the fateful and inexorable events leading up to and including the fatal shots that spilled the “best blood of the Nineteenth Century.”

“A powerful narrative seamlessly wrapped in the vivid colors of historical fiction....” (Publisher)

Pulsating with political and religious tension unlike any period in American history, the presidential campaign of 1844 initiated a dark chain of events culminating in murder. Scenes of conspiracy and intrigue come to life in this thoroughly researched novel, dramatically exploring the mindset, motives and methods behind their diabolical plans.

Desperate to retain their seats of power; hateful men unite in blood oaths to destroy an American original, the Prophet Joseph Smith.

True to the history, timing and cadence of real events, readers will be astonished to learn how a gentle man of God, with malice toward none, could be hunted and hounded like a common criminal for his claims of visionary revelation, angelic guidance and truth restored by divine authority.
