Tell Me No Lies Summary Alicia, (Allie) Hansen is convinced that Houston's Police Department is mistaken. Her sister, Jeri did not commit suicide. She was murdered. But nothing Allie says or does will make them change their report. Until she walks into her sister's condo, is attacked and barely escapes with her life, she didn't know what to do. Now she does. She goes to a Private Investigator who has been highly recommended by her boss, Blake Baxter and asks for help. Nick McKay doesn't want to take on another client. He's worried about his brother, Joey, an HPD cop, who is on an unauthorized undercover investigation of his own. And Nick is afraid that Joey is in over his head and in trouble. But Nick can't turn down the woman who is hiding her beauty beneath ill-fitting clothes, auburn hair that is piled on the top of her head in a tight bun and a look in her emerald green eyes that intrigue him. She is a beautiful woman in disguise and Nick is fascinated. Another break-in in her own apartment puts Allie's roommate in the hospital and in a coma. Allie is devastated; knows it's her fault and doesn't know why this is happening. Hasn't she led a normal, almost boring life up until now? All of a sudden someone wants her dead. A second attempt on her life convinces Nick that Allie needs protection. Since he trusts no one except himself to do the job, he takes her to his house where he can watch over her. HPD is still convinced that none of the break-ins or attempts on her life has anything to do with Jeri's death. Allie knows better. So does Nick. While Nick is doing his best to keep Allie safe and at the same time find out what could have been the cause of Jeri's death, his brother Joey is busy following his own lead in an undercover investigation into the death of his friend and investigative reporter, Jeff Lexington. He has Vince Catarno, security chief for billionaire, Cyrus Ross under surveillance. Joey manipulates circumstances that lead Vince to hire him as one o
