Who the hell has time for love? Lion-shifting Laney Langston, Redby Township's assistant librarian, sure doesn't. Between juggling book clubs, story time for the town's cubs, and her increasingly neurotic best friend, she's got just about all she can handle.

The last thing she needs is more drama in her life, but when a half-naked lion is found asleep in the library she feels stirring in places she'd really rather not stir in a public library.

Rip Black is one big, bad lion who is sick of the spotlight. Once he was a firebrand who fought endlessly for shifter rights, but lately this muscled-up alpha is just looking for somewhere to hide. As luck—or fate—would have it, he chose the “S” section of the Redby Public Library to take a nap.

When he wakes up with one supremely irritated Laney hovering above him, Rip realizes in the blink of an eye that everything he's ever wanted is right here in Redby... and he ain't gonna stop until he gets EXACTLY what he wants.

This sexy, steamy, hilarious lion-shifter romance is the crossover between Jamesburg and Grayslake that you've always wanted...and now it's gonna make you ROAR!
