Attack of the Steam Punks: A novel by Doug Moody

Attack of the Steam Punks is the latest steaming hot novel by Doug Moody, Australia's most prolific literary master. We are re-introduced to the prawn headed bludger Blake Winton, the doyen of the drunk who endures a world populated by human maggots, slop swilling plonkos and assorted pan-lickers. Blake is well and truly on his uppers, he is infested with gout and resorts to busking on the streets of Sydney in order to eke out a meagre existence. Can Blake face a life off the booze and could destiny be about to come calling for this lost soul? Over in Mother England a group of British entrepreneurs want to return to the past, they are wallowing in the Victorian age and the glory days of steam power. Could the age of the Steam Punk be about to dawn. Will Steam Punctuality and the cult of Steam Punkism sweep the globe. Will it save the tortured souls of the inmates of the New South Wales penal system? Meanwhile short order cook Andrew Paglia has lost his way in life, and is sick of being given the bums rush by every man and his dog. Could the Steam Punks offer him a new beginning? How long will Britishers continue to endure the Chunder 1 Express, where bogongs unable to hold their liquor, spew their guts over all and sundry? All will be revealed in this fast paced novel in which a new era is on the verge of dawning.
