"Led Zeppelin" Live: An Illustrated Exploration of Underground Tapes Luis Rey

This unique, information-packed updated edition is based on over 20 years of detailed analysis of underground concert tapes and examines over 210 shows from the early days of the band in 1968 through to the group's final performance in 1980. Dates, places and track listings are all documented chronologically along with comments about each show. It also includes an extensive list of songs played in concert as well as a section clearing up some of the common mistakes in dating underground tapes and bootlegs.
