Pilar is a privileged seven-year old girl who one day wanders alone to a distant beach. There she meets a much less fortunate girl and her mother. In an inspired act of kindness, Pilar gives away one of her favorite possessions. The story is based on the poem "Los zapaticos de rosa" by renowned Cuban poet, José Martí.

Beginning Spanish students and those wishing to fill the gaps in their vocabulary will benefit from reading and listening to this story. As you focus on learning to use the most common words first, you realize that they are also the words that offer you the most flexibility in speaking.

It makes sense to build a foundation with words like "es", "tiene" and "cuando" (is, has and when) before moving on to learn words you may seldom use. Gain confidence using the Top 100 words and find out how much easier it is to add new words as you progress in your acquisition of Spanish.
