What they became and what they did in life all comes back to the values instilled at St. Charles Preparatory School in Columbus, Ohio. These vignettes from the class of 1961 illuminate the continuing reality that study, hard work, dedicated teachers and mentors -- and yes, high-school antics -- still form the framework for a well-lived and productive life. In The Men of St. Charles: A Generation from the Turbulent '60s Reflects on Life, 14 alumni tell the story of their school, their families, their careers and their personal philosophies for achievement and satisfaction that spring from this storied Catholic prep school.
