This engrossing book...seems utterly convincing and authentic..A beautifully evoked, everyday reality..Lilly's voice is so believable that her story immediately seems true, so true that at times it almost convinces a reader that this might be an actual ethnographic manuscript rather than fiction..A novel that will take you to a place so far from yourself that you may wonder, from time to time, whether you are ever coming back. A wonderful feat of imagination and empathy. I had to suppress bitter feelings of literary envy, even as I couldn't stop devouring it.
