"The Girl with Specks of Gold on the other Side of Eden" is an ebook of creative writing and poetic fiction about the Great American wilderness and beauty of Americana. Inspired by the local poets, fiction writers and storytellers of her region, a young adult finds wisdom, comfort, and grace in the books of a local library that cause her to go on an adventure. First, she wants to explore the great outdoors to discover the beauty of the Central Valley of California. Second, she is determined to reach the summit of our mountains, flatlands, and national parks. In doing so, she comes to respect the great diversity of the American people and experience. You can be part of this 'Experience America' expedition in reading...
