Those of you who watch the TV drama series 'Downton Abbey' will recognise the style of the early 1920s era in which the 4th series is set. This is a fairly unusual pattern as very often the hats were sewn from felt or crocheted (we have both styles of those available as patterns too!)

So for all of you knitters, this is a chance to make some 1920s hat style yourself.

Here at Vintage Visage we take our patterns and making seriously and offer a full email back up service if you need it.

However- this pattern is deceptively simple and we think that once you read the nice and easy instructions you will be dashing to your stash for those odds and ends of yarns to make the stripes.....
