It might seem like a mystery to you. Yes, there are those people who just seem to have everything – good looks, sparkling personalities, and an easy way about them in every social situation. It has to come easy for them, right? But you have also probably known some others who don't necessarily have all that – they're a little more average, nothing that really stands out. And yet...they still has a certain something.

Everyone seems to want them around; they are surrounded by a big, happy social circle. Maybe you've looked at their pictures on Facebook, always surrounded by friends, always having a good time. You might have thought: "What does she have that I don't have? Why does it all come so easily to her?"

This book is designed to help YOU become that person. The mystery can be solved - and when it is you will find the magic where it always was – inside of you. You might have read books like this before, books that promise that if you would just "be yourself" the world would beat a path to your door. These books are often full of ideas that seem to make sense.

You get filled with inspiration reading them, you see hope on the horizon, but then.....how do you really make it work?
