Memory Man: (Amos Decker series) by David Baldacci | Summary & Analysis

This is a Summary & Analysis of Baldacci's novel. David Baldacci's work is a crime novel to top all crime novels. Inundated with malicious conspiracy, murderous insanity, and enough dead ends – and dead bodies – to make the reader dizzy, Baldacci's continuously twisting plot packs a punch on nearly every page. It is a thrilling crime novel that encompasses all the old clichés: it's a page-turner, a book that can't be put down, and it keeps the reader guessing until the end. Full of complexities, creativity, and drama, Baldacci has just upped the ante in the crime genre. It takes place in the small, depressed town of Burlington where jobs are scarce, foreclosures run rampant, and mundane is the norm. But then the triple homicide of Amos Decker's family changes the landscape of the town forever.
