Chaos in the Castle or Peace in the Palace? LYDIA WHITE

"Chaos in the Castle or Peace in the Palace?" teaches the reader how to kick the chaos out of their castle and turn it into a peaceful palace at last! As a wife and mother for over twenty-five years, the author provides an enlightening read addressing the framework of love, relationships, and marriage. Whether you are longing to marry, are planning a wedding, or you've been married for many years, this book gives insight on how to build a healthy, long-lasting relationship. Lydia brings a wealth of knowledge to the topic as she addresses the history of covenants and traditions in the wedding ceremony while clarifying the roles men and women were actually designed to play in matrimony. By connecting the reader to relevant examples of queens and kings from the historical past, she gives insight on how to succeed at one of the most challenging yet most fulfilling, foundational relationships that exists between man and woman. From the front cover's catchy title throughout the entire manuscript, the reader will find wisdom on how couples can rule their kingdom well through strong character, healthy communication and sexuality. Finally women can discover their true identity in the pages of this book so they can take back their role as the powerful and noble "woman" they've been designed to be!

Lydia White is a passionate blogger for "Living In Nobility" created to encourage women in their role as a woman, wife, and mother. Lydia has served on the board of Simple Faith Ministries, which she and her husband created in 1995. From their first appearance on a marriage ministry platform for LifeWay Christian Resources, Lydia and Dan realized this was their life's purpose. Since then, they've served in different forms of marriage ministry from the local church to the big stage. Together they do pre-marital coaching for engaged couples. As a devoted, married couple they long to see the next generation of marriages built on solid principles that can cause love to last for a lifetime!
