Promoters have been spinning lies about Orange County since 1889, when it was created by chopping off the southeast corner of Los Angeles County. But despite what the travel and tourism industry would like you to believe, there's far more behind the Orange Curtain than Disneyland Resort, Knott's Berry Farm, Mission San Juan Capistrano, and the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim.

You won't find a single theme park or major tourist attraction in ORANGE COUNTY'S BEST-KEPT TRAVEL SECRETS. Instead, this ebook looks at 10 of the region's lesser-known attractions... plus 10 of OC's best-kept cultural secrets... 5 alternatives to the typical shopping mall experience... and 5 of the county's least pretentious restaurants, selected by the author from among his personal favorites. (Where can you eat crickets for lunch? Just ask.)

"The Insider's Guide to Orange County" doesn't know about these attractions and the majority of county residents have never heard of them. Former AAA travel writer and veteran journalist Jordan R. Young, a resident of OC for nearly 40 years, is your guide.

Welcome to The Other OC, where you can visit a 7,000-acre park with ocean views... a 300-acre wildlife preserve, surrounded by corporate America... Walt Disney's garage studio from the 1920s... a collection of superstar sports memorabilia second to none... a shrine to California Impressionist painters... the home of a famous Polish Shakespearean actress... and one of OC's original Sunkist orange groves.... see award-winning theater and hear smoking jazz at a fraction of the usual price.
