Rafe Johnson, favored target of the tabloids and critical darling of the movies is Green River, Michigan's most famous son - and yet he hides a troubled, secret past. Now, as the media speculates on his latest romantic split, the embattled actor has snuck home to put both the literal and figurative ghosts of the past to rest with the strike of a match. Unbeknownst to him, however, a paparazzi journalist has followed him. As the ghosts rise and the flames rage, Rafe must weigh his private vs. his public persona, his past against his future.
