Can't Buy Me Love (and other romantic short stories) (Daily Della Book 4) Della Galton

It's more of the same in Daily Della Four.

Can't Buy Me Love is the story of Lissa, who's obsessed with her career until the day her world crashes and she finds solace in the rhythms of a ferry - and its ferryman.

Losing her job and her man at the same time isn't fun, but then Karen meets David and it begins to feel like Luck Or Destiny.

You can tell a lot about a man by his taste in candles, Katie reckons, Is she right? Find out in Candles.

A mysterious blind date gets more mysterious by the second in An Angel Saved My Life.

And finally, Murphy, this story holds a rather special place in my heart. In twenty-five years it's the only short story I've written, which resulted in three fan letters. And reading it again just made me cry. That's all I'm going to say!
